CELEBRATED FLORIDA AUTHOR UNVEILS EIGHTH NOVEL IN HARLEQUIN ROMANCE SHOWCASE

New Year, New Love

Orlando, FL (1/03/11) – Celebrated Florida author Yahrah St. John wraps up the holiday season with a New Year's Day unveiling of Two to Tango, her eighth Harlequin/Kimani Press romance novel. This final book of the Orpan Series is being heralded as one that delivers a well packaged story of passion, romance, and excitement. Two to Tango is available on bookshelves nationwide at Barnes and Noble, Borders, Walmart, Target, and many other retailers. It can also be purchased at www.amazon.com.

In Two to Tango, the sky's the limit for Dante Moore. Thanks to a rave review from a top food critic, the New York restaurateur is poised to become the city's next big celebrity chef. Then he finds out who the reviewer is. Adrianna Wright, the beautiful, loving woman who shared his bed and made him believe in happy endings...right before she vanished from his life. Adrianna believed her passionate romance with Dante would last forever—that she'd finally found her soul mate. Her heart broke when her scandalous secret forced her to leave the man she loved. Now, with things heating up between them once again, Adrianna isn't ready to sit this one out. It's time to show Dante that business and pleasure can mix, and that passion's even hotter the second time around. "I think my fans who share a love of cooking and good food will enjoy the 'juicy' angle I've added to the storyline, states St. John.

Internationally beloved for bringing a captivating appeal to romantic fiction, St. John was a featured author during the Romance Writers of America 30th Annual Conference in Orlando. She has generated media attention through television news broadcasts, newspapers across the state, and talk show interviews. The author has been awarded 4 and 5 stars from book reviewers including: Romantic Times BOOKReviews, Rawsistaz Reviewers, Romance in Color, and various book clubs.
