Chicago's Own Yahrah St. John Announces Twenty-Fourth Book Release

Orlando, FL (02/20/17) – In timely fashion, as we celebrate Black History during February and Women's History in March, African-American woman author Yahrah St. John, releases her twenty-fourth book, titled "Chasing Hearts." This is the sixth installment of the immensely popular Hart series, by Harlequin. This page turner is fueled with suspense, vengeance, and wild attraction. Now available wherever books are sold, the novel can be purchased in paperback and Kindle editions online at Amazon and Barnes & Noble retailers. Book trailer: <http://bit.ly/2k0OTbr>.

As an internationally known romance writer, the Chicago native is a graduate of Hyde Park Career Academy and earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English from Northwestern University.

Brief Synopsis ...

Renowned petroleum geologist Bree Hart's blood, sweat, and tears have put her sexist father Duke Hart's Dallas firm, Hart Enterprises, on the international map. So when he brazenly appoints her cousin Caleb Hart, a former bull rider with little relevant work experience, to lead HE, Bree walks. She takes a job with real leadership responsibility at Wells Oil, one of Hart Enterprises's competitors . . . and the real drama begins
