Celebrating Women's History Month with Author Yahrah St. John

Orlando, FL (03/01/17) – As we recognize remarkable contributions of women in history and modern society this month, we honor Yahrah St. John, a bestselling African-American author who has helped shape and elevate the contemporary romance genre for literary readers across the globe.

Writing novels that feature high drama, seduction, and passion, St. John touts many accolades and awards as a published author at Harlequin. She has written for the Kimani Romance line since 2004, with books sold in both print and online editions.

Internationally beloved for bringing a captivating appeal to romantic fiction, St. John's work is currently sold in English speaking countries, such as the United States, Canada, Great Britain, and Australia.

“As an author, it fascinates me to be able to weave a colorful tapestry of storylines, plots, and characters into something that people enjoy reading,” notes St. John. “As a woman, I'm delighted to share relatable page-turners that may make you blush,” she states with a chuckle. St. John recently released her twenty-fourth book, titled “Chasing Hearts.” Her publications can be purchased through Amazon, Barnes & Noble retailers, and wherever books are sold.
